Position:	JV Volleyball Coach	Classification:	Schedule B
Terms:	Fall Sports Season	Posted:	December 9, 2025
Salary:	Per Schedule B Contract	Closing Date:	Until Filled

The JV Volleyball Coach is responsible for leading, teaching, and mentoring student-athletes in the JV volleyball program. This position supports the overall goals and philosophy of the school's athletic department and works collaboratively with the Varsity Volleyball Coach to create a cohesive 9–12 volleyball program. The coach upholds all district, league, and Michigan High School Athletic Association (MHSAA) rules while fostering a positive, safe, and inclusive environment for student-athletes.

Qualifications:

- Possession of a high school diploma or its equivalent
- Knowledge of MHSAA rules and regulations (or willingness to learn)
- Experience playing or coaching volleyball (school, club, or community level)
- Previous successful coaching experience preferred
- Must meet all district and/or state requirements for school coaches (including background check, CPR/First Aid certification, and any necessary coaching certifications or training)

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan and conduct safe and organized practices, conditioning sessions, and competitions
- Coordinate travel logistics for away competitions, including transportation and supervision
- Communicate regularly with athletes, families, athletic staff, and school administrators
- Effectively teach the proper fundamentals, techniques, strategies, and rules of the sport.
- Create a positive team culture emphasizing respect, teamwork, discipline, and academic responsibility
- Provide guidance, support, and feedback to develop athletes at varying skill levels
