GENERAL

TODAY'S WORD OF THE DAY:
jilt
To jilt someone is usually to abruptly end a romantic relationship with them. Jilt is also applied to various kinds of abrupt rejection.

Seniors! There is a survey in your inbox to vote for your prom theme! Please vote by TODAY. See Mrs. LaBean if you have any questions.

Latino Youth Club's next candy sale will be TODAY during both lunches! Everything is $1.00.

The blood drive is next Tuesday, October 27th. You can sign up to donate at both lunches, scan the QR code on the flyers around school or see Mrs. Hulka.

FROM THE COUNSELOR

There is a campus visit scheduled to tour Western Michigan University's College of Engineering on Tuesday, October 27. This is an engineering-focused trip, not a general campus visit. This trip is open to 10th-12th grade students. There is a permission slip available at the front desk in counseling. Permission slips are due by TODAY!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO:

Zaylah Ferguson, Connor Harrison, Logan Kraus, and Kellen Kater
